

A CENT A WORD

FOR SALE.

FOR SALE—TWO NICE, FAT COWS for sale. Inquire at Hotel Wayne. A good bargain. 8112

FOR SALE—A YOUNG BLACK horse, good worker, single and double. Inquire Howard Smith, Forest street, Honesdale, Pa. 80602

FOR SALE—FIRST-CLASS WORK horse, weight about 1200. Address S. S. Robinson, R. D. No. 3, Honesdale. 7844.

A PIANO BARGAIN. RENTED less than three months. $175 cash; $200 payments. McIntyre. 21

MISCELLANEOUS.

IF YOU WISH TO BUY, SELL OR exchange anything in the way of real estate "let Dorin do it." Office, 1302 Spring street, Honesdale. 11

DANCING SCHOOL OPENS IN LYric hall Friday evening, Oct. 27, from 7:30 to 10:30 o'clock. Admission 25c. Ida Heft Richtenbacher.

SCHOOL OF DANCING—OPEN FRIDAY afternoon, Oct. 27, Tuesday, Oct. 31. For information consult register open at P. L. Cole's drug store. 791f.

WHEN IN NEED OF CARRIAGES and sleighs don't forget E. T. Smith, 1120 Church street, who has the largest assortment in Wayne county to select from. 751f

FOUR ROOM APARTMENT with improvements. Basement, laundry and garden. 222 Ridge street. 80612

ALL REPAIR WORK finished up-to-date in all our different branches. Sommer, Jeweler and Optician. 301f

WANTED—FIRST-CLASS MAN TO take charge of acid room, at once. Keystone Cut Glass Co.

THREE experienced workmen at the bench daily. All repairs finished at the shortest notice. Sommer, Jeweler and Optician. 301f

LOCAL NEWS

The seats for the new army have arrived and will be used on Friday evening for the first time.

A marriage license was issued Oct. 14, to Russell W. Gammell, Bethany, and Miss Edna A. Blake, Bethany.

W. J. Davies, of Berlin, has withdrawn from the office of Prothonotary on the Prohibition ticket, and C. E. Dodge from the Keystone ticket for the same office.

The South Canaan Methodist Episcopal church will hold their Ladies' Aid society at the M. E. parsonage at South Canaan, Pa., on Friday, October 20. A hearty invitation is extended to all people.

Dorflinger's cut glass and blowing establishment, White Mills, is running on full time. The factory is one of the oldest in the county and the largest in this section. It gives employment to about 500 men.

George Buss, a Pittston business man, has been placed on the Democratic county ticket as a candidate for county treasurer to take the place of John J. McDewitt, of Wilkes-Barre, who ran for the nomination as a sort of a joke and secured it. He withdrew last week and at a meeting the county committee selected Buss.

John Tompkins, executor of the last will and testament of Reuben W. Redmond, late of Buckingham township, was authorized by the Court, Saturday morning to sell the real estate of the deceased at public sale after notice thereof as required by law. Terms of sale, cash. Returnable to the second Monday of November next.

David A. Potter has commenced divorce proceedings against his wife, Ida U. Potter, charging that she wilfully and maliciously deserted him, August 15, 1903, without any just or reasonable cause. A subpoena was granted by Judge A. T. Searle returnable to the second Monday in November. The couple were married January 13, 1895.

Horton Polley was elected captain of the Seelyville basketball ball five at a meeting held last Thursday evening in the Seelyville Fire Company Hall. Six of last season's star players reported for duty, and a stiff practice game was played. Seelyville means to leave no stone unturned to win the county basketball championship of 1911-1912.

A number of the stockholders of the Empire Cobalt Mine Company met at the Allen House on Thursday evening to listen to L. P. Wilson, secretary and general manager of the company. Mr. Wilson made a thorough and exhaustive report on the condition of the mines and the operations of the company. He answered the many questions that were fired at him and so satisfactory was the meeting that without any urgent solicitation on Mr. Wilson's part over 9000 shares of stock were subscribed for the purpose of hastening the completion of the work now in progress.

H. E. Bassett witnessed the electrical demonstration of the paragon, a device for reproducing baseball games, in Scranton, on Saturday. He states that it is a wonderful invention. As plays were made on the field they were flashed over the wire and almost simultaneously were reproduced upon the board, the plays and players being identified by colored electric lights. As the plays were made they were explained. The audience was apparently as much interested as if they were witnessing a real game. Enthusiasm was manifested on both sides by cheers. If one is a lover of the National game he ought to witness the paragon demonstrate the results, says Mr. Bassett.

A marriage license was granted October 14 to Miles A. Gibbons and Ida M. Kittner, both of White Mills.

The firm of Morrison & Canavan, plumbers, has been dissolved, T. J. Canavan retiring from the firm. S. B. Morrison will continue the business.

The remains of Mrs. Mary E. Moylan, of Carbondale, were interred in Canaan, Wayne county on Monday. The funeral was held from the Canaan Catholic church.

The following advertised letters remain at the Honesdale postoffice: Mr. and Mrs. Howard Bea, Frank Boulter, Miss Jessie Glaknon, Mrs. Ella Kimble, Miss Nellie Miller, Nellie O'Keefe, George A. Smith, M. B. Allen, Postmaster.

The ladies of the Methodist church cleared $100 from their supper of last Thursday evening. The affair was in charge of Mrs. W. H. Varcoe, who is president of the Ladies' Aid society, under whose auspices the supper was given.

The McKanna Cooperaige is one of the busiest places in Honesdale. This firm is manufacturing about 700 apple barrels daily and ship from one to two carloads per day. The product is consigned to a number of places, chiefly in New York state.

The Wayne county commissioners received a telegram Tuesday morning announcing the death of James Duroc, an inmate at the Danville sanitarium. Mr. Duroc was committed to Danville November 1, 1910, on the charge of being of unsound mind. At present it is not known where the remains will be sent.

A fine specimen of the Wilbert variety of apple was on exhibition in O. M. Spetigue's window a few days last week. It weighed 21 ounces and measured 17 inches in circumference. The apple was presented by Philip Dean at Pond Eddy, Wayne county farmers can raise just as good if they go about it in a scientific manner.

A patriotic address, in rhyme, was delivered by Comrade William McCalve, in Memorial Hall, Wilkes-Barre, October 12, the occasion being the reunion of the survivors of the 52d regiment of Pennsylvania Volunteers. Oliver C. Sears, who attended the celebration, claimed that it was full of patriotism and brought forth much enthusiasm.

Sidney Henwood died in Scranton on Monday, aged 52 years. The remains will be brought to Honesdale Wednesday afternoon and interment will be made in the family plot in Glen Derry cemetery. Mr. Henwood was well known in Honesdale, having married a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Lane. One brother, Walter J., of Scranton, is the only survivor of this once large family.

Candidates should remember that the law requires the filing of expense accounts with the prothonotary. If less than $50 has been expended, the accounts do not have to be filed until 30 days after the November election. If more than $50 has been expended then the filing must be done not later than 15 days after the primaries. In other words, if a candidate expends less than $50 one expense account filed within 30 days after Nov. 7, will do for both the primary and general election.

Oliver C. Sears, Rileyville, a well-known Civil war veteran, returned Friday from Wilkes-Barre, where he attended the annual reunion of the survivors of the 52d Pennsylvania Volunteers, which was held Thursday in the State Armory with an attendance of between 75 and 80. Mr. Sears is the sole survivor of this regiment living in Wayne county. At this meeting it was decided to meet jointly hereafter with the survivors of the 143d New York.

The aftermath of election in Wayne county, where there was a small army of candidates for county office is bringing out some curious facts. Two candidates for different offices agreed to work for one another, and in the home district of one of the men the other didn't get a vote. Another candidate kept tabs on the number of men in a certain township who promised to vote for him and after the returns were in found that just two-thirds of them lied.—Forest City News.

The materials that go to make up our paper money are gathered together from all parts of the world. Part of the paper fiber is linen rag from the Orient. The silk comes from China or Italy. The blue ink is made from German or Canadian cobalt. The black ink is made from Niagara Falls acetylene gas smoke, and most of the green ink is green color mixed in white zinc sulphate made in Germany. The red color in the seal is obtained from a pigment imported from Central America.—Scientific American.

During the aviation meet, Sept. 23 to October 1, on Long Island, 43,247 pieces of mail were dispatched from the Nassau boulevard to Mineola, a distance of fifteen miles. By special order of Postmaster General Hitchcock, aeroplane station No. 1 was established on the Nassau field and mail was dispatched regularly. Eight aviators were engaged in this transportation, all sworn in as "aeroplane mail carriers." Street letter boxes were placed about the aviation field for aeroplane mail. The results of the experiment, according to a report to the postoffice department by inspectors, were excellent.

The borough of Honesdale, one of the prettiest towns, by the way, in this section of the state, has become very ambitious. Not only is it growing but it is developing new industries. The latest is to be a china decorating establishment. With so much that is promising held out to it the town is thinking of enlarging its boundaries. It aims now to take in the whole of the adjoining township of Texas. The project was urged at the last session of the borough council and now the business men show a disposition to take up the question. Several adjacent districts have already petitioned for the privilege of becoming a part of the borough and it is likely that the requests will be granted.—"Afternoon Echoes," Scranton Truth.

Born, a son to Mr. and Mrs. Frank Stegner, Saturday.

Marriage licenses have been granted to Edward Koberlein of Cochection, N. Y., and Miss Lena Rutledge, of Gailee.

Daughters were born Saturday to Mr. and Mrs. S. F. Marshall, Laura, and Mr. and Mrs. Marshall Bayley, East Honesdale.

Marrried at the Methodist parsonage Monday, Oct. 16, by Rev. W. H. Hiller, Edward Koberlein of Cochection, N. Y., and Miss Lena Rutledge of Gailee.

Fred J. Tolley, Honesdale, has filed with the County Commissioners his withdrawal as a candidate for the office of Register and Recorder on the Keystone ticket.

The Midnight Sons will entertain at a dance in Lyric hall on Halloween eve, Monday, Oct. 30. The D. Y. L. M. Girls will have charge of the refreshments during the evening.

Rally Day will be observed in the Methodist Sunday school next Sabbath. A special program has been prepared and Superintendent Buel Dodge extends a cordial invitation to all former scholars to be present.

Theodore Day says that E. D. Goodnough has the finest apple orchard he has seen this year. Mr. Goodnough harvested 50 barrels of apples from a small orchard. Cultivation and fertilization is the secret of the large crop. Mr. Goodnough did not spray his trees.

Howard Chandler, only son of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur D. Chandler, died very suddenly at the home of his parents in Orange, N. J., last week. Mr. Chandler visited at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Suydam, Sr., at this place, upon several occasions. The deceased was 25 years of age.

The Honesdale Golf Club members elected officers for the ensuing year last Saturday evening, resulting as follows: President, W. J. Birdsell; vice-president, Miss Dora A. Conger; secretary, Miss Nellie Hulsizer; treasurer, Earl H. Ham; governors, W. J. Ward, C. R. Callaway, Miss Dorothy Menner.

Members of Freedom Lodge of Odd Fellows, No. 88, celebrated the 68th anniversary of their order on Monday evening in a most fitting manner. A fine musical program in charge of J. A. Bodie, Sr., was rendered. Short addresses were made by R. M. Stocker, A. C. Lindsay, M. E. Simons and W. B. Lesher. After the exercises the members enjoyed an oyster supper, which had been prepared by Mrs. C. J. Brown.

Captain C. J. Kelly, captain of Company E, 13th Regulars, has received orders from headquarters of the National Guard of Pennsylvania, instructing him to follow a special course of study for the members of the company commencing October 29, and continuing until March 31, 1912. The subjects are for officers, non-commissioned officers and selected privates and consist of map reading, orders, messages, reports, patrols, covering detachments, combat and sanitary service in the field.

Theodore Kline, Grange organizer of Wayne county, was a business caller in Honesdale Monday. Mr. Kline is very much interested in the development of Wayne county as an agriculture and milk producing county. This week he is calling upon the farmers in Cherry Ridge and White Mills, endeavoring to get them interested in a co-operative creamery. The proposed establishment would be located at White Mills and its product would be shipped to New York. Mr. Kline is confident that the project will materialize and is working hard toward that end.

The many friends of Mayor John Kubbach, Honesdale's popular burgess, will be grieved to learn, that after a seeming recovery from a severe attack of grippe, he suffered a relapse last Saturday afternoon, when he ventured out to go his place of business, since when he has been confined to his room under the care of Dr. P. F. Griffin. His illness started in the first place with a heavy cold. Mayor Kubbach has not been well for weeks, but with his usual courage and determination he attended to his business affairs up to the last minute, before succumbing to the prevailing malady. It is hoped that a rest of several days will restore him to his usual health and vigor.

Quite a serious runaway accident occurred on Main street Sunday evening. Coe Decker, Seelyville, was driving up Main street and when near Dunkelberg's meat market his rig collided with that of Russell Ridd, of Dyberry. The wheel locked and both horses freed themselves from their respective wagons. The Decker horse ran toward Seelyville. It was caught on West Park street, while the Ridd horse continued down Main street at a rapid pace and did not stop until it fell at the corner of Main and Sixth streets. As it fell the horse's head came in violent contact with the fire hydrant on Sixth street. Its cheek bone was fractured. The occupants of the wagons were uninjured. Witnesses claim that Mr. Decker was driving slowly up street, but that the Ridd horse was covering the ground quite rapidly. It was dark when the accident happened, which in a measure might account for the rigs colliding.

The regular monthly meeting of the Honesdale school board was held last Thursday evening. In the absence of President A. T. Searle, vice-president F. C. Schoell, presided over the session. All other members were present. Bills amounting to $966.73 for salaries of teachers, text-books and supplies were ordered paid. One $500 bond and coupon was ordered paid. This is the sixth bond to be retired, making two for this year. The schedule for the payment of bonds allows for two bonds next year and three in 1913. The schedule has been figured out for the thirty years allowing more bonds to be paid as the years advance, the interest being less each succeeding year, which warrants the increase in the number of bonds. There are 198 enrolled on the list of non-resident pupils, being four less than last year. The building committee was authorized to place a light at the Court street entrance of the school. A school calendar providing vacations, school board meetings, teachers' months, etc., was adopted.

PERSONAL

Mr. and Mrs. Homer Greene are in Atlantic City.

Frederick R. Williams, Pittston, was in town Tuesday.

Miss Ethel Lee has returned from a visit in Wilkes-Barre.

Mr. and Mrs. C. T. Bentley were recent Scranton callers.

Miss Kate Kroll has returned from a visit in Scranton.

R. W. Murphy, of Hawley, spent part of Monday in town.

Paul Flies is spending part of the week in Middletown, N. Y.

Misses Elizabeth and Mary Hanley were in Scranton Saturday.

Miss Eva Wilson returned Monday from a visit in Philadelphia.

Mrs. Louise James is visiting her son, George, in New York city.

C. A. McCarty was in Scranton on professional business Tuesday.

Daniel H. Maloney, Erie agent, is in New York City on a pleasure trip.

C. H. Dorflinger, White Mills, is spending a few days in the metropolis.

Misses Elizabeth and Lillian Barber were Scranton callers on Saturday.

Mrs. Ralph Martin, of Hawley, was a caller in Honesdale on Monday.

Mrs. George Rodine is a guest of relatives and friends in New York city.

Miss Marie Ward passed Saturday and Sunday with Wilkes-Barre friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Jenkins returned in their auto from New York Monday.

William Weiser, Philadelphia, is spending a few days with Honesdale relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. T. M. Hancock, of Corning, N. Y., are visiting friends in Seelyville.

Edward Belknap, Prompton, transacted business in Wilkes-Barre last week.

Mrs. Floyd A. Thompson and son Meredith are spending a few days in Honesdale.

Mrs. B. Schermerhorn, of Kansas City, Mo., is visiting friends in Honesdale.

P. J. McCame and party of friends of Carbondale, were Honesdale callers on Sunday.

Dr. W. T. McConville witnessed the first game of the world's series at New York on Saturday.

Miss Alice Oliver, of New York, is passing several days with friends and relatives in this vicinity.

Irving White, of Little Rock, Ark., spent a few days last week with his father, Gilbert White.

Fred Giehrer, who is working for the Erie Railroad Co. at Pittston, spent Sunday with his parents here.

Mrs. R. W. Ham and Miss Dora A. Conger left Tuesday morning for New York city where they will spend a few days.

Louis Markley returned to his home in Providence, R. I., on Monday after a two weeks' vacation with Seelyville relatives.

H. Z. Russell and party motored to Scranton on Saturday and witnessed the production of "The Chocolate Soldier."

Miss Jeanette Freeman left Tuesday morning for New York city, where she will spend a month with relatives and friends.

Mrs. Wm. H. Hawken returned home last Saturday from the State hospital where she has been under the care of a specialist for three weeks.

Dr. and Mrs. Barnet Golden and son, of Carbondale, are guests in Honesdale. They will remain here until Wednesday, when they will go to Hawley for a few days.

Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Bullock returned on Saturday from New York City, where they spent the week. They drove overland coming home, making the trip in two and a half days.

Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Transue and Mrs. Emma Taylor attended the wedding of Miss Bertha Cottrell and Lydon Lee in Mount Vernon, N. Y., Saturday evening. The marriage was solemnized at the bride's home. The former returned Sunday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. John Weston left Monday morning for Hot Springs, Va., where they will remain a fortnight. Mr. Weston is afflicted with muscular rheumatism and by going South he hopes to get relief. Mr. and Mrs. Weston are stopping at the Homestead Hotel in Hot Springs.

TOO YOUNG TO BE CRIMINALS.

Some Good Advice Given By Judge Searle To Young Violators of the Law.

Elias Hedgelson, aged 16, Alfred Polt, aged 13, Edward Schmuck, aged 15, had their innings Monday morning at argument court, when they pleaded guilty to entering Graham Watts' store, a year ago around Fair time, and stealing revolvers and knives to the value of $21.50. Judge Searle soundly lectured them, and paroled them in the custody of their parents and of a relative.

The story of their escapade, as related to the Court, by District Attorney M. E. Simons, is as follows: "These boys found a window open in the second story of Mr. Watts' store. They took a ladder and went up and in and down into the store. Elias Hedgelson standing outside to watch while the other three boys went in and took some knives and revolvers. They took them out and the boys say they hid some of them that night, and the next day they got their booty and distributed them among the boys. This happened something over a year ago about Fair time. It seems that some of the boys who had been in the habit of using them knew how they got them, and that's the way it got out."

Judge Searle questioned the boys closely. Edward Schmuck, next to the oldest of the trio, said that he was 15 on October 13. He worked at Durland-Weston's staining buttons a year this January. He said he took his money home and stayed in evenings.

District Attorney Simons said: "I understand these boys were all bad boys. Their parents were not able to take care of them. They wouldn't mind their parents. They had the habit of congregating in different places. They had a place where they congregated and smoked cigarettes."

"Isn't that the case, boys?" asked Mr. Simons. "Yes, sir," they chimed up in unison. Young Schmuck's father said the mother takes the boy's part. His son always behaved pretty well, he declared. "If ever I come out of this, I'll be a different boy," his son promised him some time ago. "I never could catch them smoking cigarettes," he continued.

Graham Watts was called and said he knew nothing of the Schmuck boy. "All I know," he said, "is that that three or four boys admitted taking those good from my store. I didn't know any of the boys. I never got any of the goods back, nor the value."

Wm. H. Hulhizer, who is the superintendent of the Durland-Weston Shoe Company, said that the boy had always been straight in the factory. "He's an invertebrate smoker of cigarettes."

The Court wanted to know whether these merchants didn't know it was against the law to sell cigarettes to boys under 21? "Of Elias Hedgelson, who is 16, and worked in the shoe factory, for the past two years, steadily. Blackening shanks, Superintendent Hulhizer said: "He's a good boy to work. Cigarette-smoking is his worst habit."

Albert Polt, aged 13, who goes to school in Miss Soete's room, said he stayed home evenings now. Elias Hedgelson told an interesting story. He said: "We had a little club after we stole the revolvers. The club met under our porch. We met there and talked and smoked. That's about all. Sometimes we had a little blowout. We'd buy stuff, bologna and candies. We gathered there nearly every night for a while. I sold one revolver and lost the knives. We took 7 revolvers and ten or twelve knives."

Albert Polt said he didn't smoke. Edward Schmuck said "I smoke a pipe now," and Elias Hedgelson said "Just the same," when asked by Judge Searle whether they still smoked cigarettes.

Polt's father said he hadn't had any trouble with his boy lately. When asked by the Judge what they wanted done with their sons, both parents said they would rather have them home than sent to the reformatory.

Judge Searle advised that the parents make some attempt to pay Mr. Watts the value of the stolen goods and agreed to parole the boys. "If they promised to make no more trouble and to stop smoking cigarettes."

"I dislike to send any boy to the Reformatory," concluded the Judge. "A boy sent there often learns as much bad as good."

Advising the boys to obey their parents, who are their best friends, Judge Searle, cautioned them that he would not lose sight of them and admonished them to obey their parents and they would in the end make good men.

A Useful Tip. In the winter one's furs are terrible things for soiling gloves, and even if I am going only to a little tea party I wear over my "party" gloves a pair of these "glove-preservers."

I hear someone say: "But why not wear an old, very loose fitting pair of gloves over your best instead of buying new ones?"

Because the old gloves are sure to be soiled inside, and may soil the new gloves, while the silk or woolen ones wash like rags.

understand these boys were all bad boys. Their parents were not able to take care of them. They wouldn't mind their parents. They had the habit of congregating in different places. They had a place where they congregated and smoked cigarettes."

"Isn't that the case, boys?" asked Mr. Simons. "Yes, sir," they chimed up in unison.

Young Schmuck's father said the mother takes the boy's part. His son always behaved pretty well, he declared. "If ever I come out of this, I'll be a different boy," his son promised him some time ago. "I never could catch them smoking cigarettes," he continued.

Graham Watts was called and said he knew nothing of the Schmuck boy. "All I know," he said, "is that that three or four boys admitted taking those good from my store. I didn't know any of the boys. I never got any of the goods back, nor the value."

Wm. H. Hulhizer, who is the superintendent of the Durland-Weston Shoe Company, said that the boy had always been straight in the factory. "He's an invertebrate smoker of cigarettes."

The Court wanted to know whether these merchants didn't know it was against the law to sell cigarettes to boys under 21? "Of Elias Hedgelson, who is 16, and worked in the shoe factory, for the past two years, steadily. Blackening shanks, Superintendent Hulhizer said: "He's a good boy to work. Cigarette-smoking is his worst habit."

Albert Polt, aged 13, who goes to school in Miss Soete's room, said he stayed home evenings now. Elias Hedgelson told an interesting story. He said: "We had a little club after we stole the revolvers. The club met under our porch. We met there and talked and smoked. That's about all. Sometimes we had a little blowout. We'd buy stuff, bologna and candies. We gathered there nearly every night for a while. I sold one revolver and lost the knives. We took 7 revolvers and ten or twelve knives."

Albert Polt said he didn't smoke. Edward Schmuck said "I smoke a pipe now," and Elias Hedgelson said "Just the same," when asked by Judge Searle whether they still smoked cigarettes.

Polt's father said he hadn't had any trouble with his boy lately. When asked by the Judge what they wanted done with their sons, both parents said they would rather have them home than sent to the reformatory.

Judge Searle advised that the parents make some attempt to pay Mr. Watts the value of the stolen goods and agreed to parole the boys. "If they promised to make no more trouble and to stop smoking cigarettes."

"I dislike to send any boy to the Reformatory," concluded the Judge. "A boy sent there often learns as much bad as good."

Advising the boys to obey their parents, who are their best friends, Judge Searle, cautioned them that he would not lose sight of them and admonished them to obey their parents and they would in the end make good men.

A Useful Tip. In the winter one's furs are terrible things for soiling gloves, and even if I am going only to a little tea party I wear over my "party" gloves a pair of these "glove-preservers."

I hear someone say: "But why not wear an old, very loose fitting pair of gloves over your best instead of buying new ones?"

Because the old gloves are sure to be soiled inside, and may soil the new gloves, while the silk or woolen ones wash like rags.

The Citizen from now until January, only 25 cents.

BETHANY.

Bethany, Pa., Oct. 17. Monday evening Mrs. Henry A. Bennett entertained a number of her friends in honor of her birthday and the affair proved most enjoyable. The decorations were in pink, green and white and the refreshments were served by Mrs. Bennett and Miss Ella Gammell. The evening was delightfully spent by all present and music, both vocal and instrumental, made the time pass quickly. Those in attendance were: Rev. and Mrs. Bierly, Mrs. Charles Blake, Mrs. J. B. Faatz, Mrs. E. M. Gammell, Miss Gilchrist, Miss Elizabeth Gilchrist, Mrs. J. J. Hauser, Mrs. Rush Kimble, Miss Helen Manning, Mrs. John Smith and Miss Thomas of Peckville. The hostess received a handsome shopping bag from her friends.

Mrs. E. M. Butts and Mrs. A. T. Sturdevant of Wilkes-Barre, came Wednesday to visit Miss Gilchrist. Miss Helen Manning gave a "variety shower" Wednesday evening for Miss Edna A. Blake whose marriage to Russell W. Gammell will take place on Wednesday.

Quite a number from here enjoyed the chicken dinner at Mrs. Cory Faatz's home, Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. James Johns spent one day last week at Forest City. Miss Ida Thomas spent several days last week with her aunt, Mrs. Dwight Henshaw, and cousins, Mr. and Mrs. James Henshaw and family.

Mrs. William Sherwood returned from Scranton Saturday. "Echoes," Scranton Truth, W. S. Stot and children returned from Gailee Sunday.

Miss Helen Manning expects to return to New York Thursday. Miss Eva Harnes, of Hawley, will be entertained by Miss Ella Gammell during the week and attend the Gammell-Blake wedding.

CARD OF THANKS.

Mrs. James H. Powell and family wish to thank all her relatives and friends for their generous sympathies during her recent bereavement in the loss of her husband, James H. Powell.

NOTICE!

Notice is hereby given that the undersigned will sell at public sale on Saturday, November 4, 1911, at 2 p. m., the property known as the A. C. Jaycox property in Buckingham township, Wayne county, Pennsylvania, consisting of sixty-five acres of land more or less, and also one house, barn, good orchard, etc. Terms of sale cash. Mary R. Jaycox, Executrix of A. C. Jaycox estate.

Our Cold Tablets break up a cold—stop it right at its conception—prevent it resulting in serious illness. Really a remarkable remedy, safe, sure, never failing, never even hesitating. Has a slight laxative effect to remove the germs when dislodged. Just give them a trial. 25c. a box.

"The Quality Store" THE DRUGGIST

X|Who's Who In Politics|X

W. B. Leshar, of Sterling, is the Republican candidate for Register and Recorder. He most earnestly asks the voters of Wayne county to remember him election day, Nov. 7.

Fred Saunders, Democratic nominee for Register and Recorder, asks the voter to remember him November 7.

Vote for E. E. Bunnell, of Texas township, Republican candidate for assessor.

Earl Rockwell, one of the successful Republican candidates for county commissioner, respectfully solicits your vote on November 7.

Earl Rockwell for county commissioner, is the people's choice.